

A MOTHER'S HYMNE

M.S.Teussink

1. OH MOTHER

Oh Mother
Oh destiny
There's a pain within the broken heart
There's a pain within the broken hearted
For the reason we must part
For the reason we must stand apart
Let me cover all the tears
Let it vanish all the fears
Mother Mary weeps for destiny
Sweet Mother Mary
There's a pain within the heart
For the reason we must part
Let me cover all the tears
Let it vanish all the fears

2. IN HER LOVE

In her love there life will start even though the goodbye's hard Those who suffer in the world
Let them turn towards her soul
Hear tomorrow's children weep Mothers cradle them to sleep overcome the greatest pain
by the love that it will gain
In her love where life will start Mother Mary's gentle heart cares for suffering in the world Lets it heal from wounds to whole
Hear tomorrow's children weep
Cradle them to sleep, rest deep
overcome the greatest pain
there's just love that will remain
All the suffering in the world
Everything has its own role

3. OH FATHER

Oh Father, is all lost?
To pay life's price at any cost?
Oh Father there's no higher price then any human sacrifice
Oh Father, is all lost?
Pay life's price at any cost?
Father there's no higher price
Then a human sacrifice

Oh Father there's no higher sacrifice

4. IN OUR DESTINY

In our destiny lies rest every child on mother's chest Mother Mary crying softly

5. THROUGH THE BATTLE

There's the hoping, there's the care
There's a hoping care There's the wondering out there through the battle conquer pains like our blood runs through our veins
Through the battle
Conquer
Conquer
Conquer pains

6. ALL FREE

Mother Mary
In the end it sets all free
all free, all light
that's what binds each other tight That's what gets us through the night
all free, all light
from the night

7. PENDING OF TIME

Towards the pending of our time let's hold each other in a rhyme let's hand to words throughout a hymne let end of suffering begin

8. PARTING CHILDREN

Mother's parting children hurt
Locks the heart and shuts the eye
But there's peace, not just a word that makes us carry the goodbye/that makes us carry all the hurt

There is a pain in every heart
There is a tear for every part in life it praises all the pain for only love that will remain

9. OH DESTINY

Oh Mother, Oh Destiny in all the ending there it lies for all the hurt the mother cries

10. ARE WE LOST?

Are we found, are we lost?
To pay life's price at any cost?
Oh Father, Father, let us rise for your son's human sacrifice Oh Mother, Father, let us rise to honour the world's paradise
