

Dutch Multi-Instrumentalist Maartje Teussink Unveils Soulful New Album Blank Page Mosaic

Listen Here

Release Date: 14th August

Dutch songwriter, composer, and multi-instrumentalist Maartje Teussink has released her captivating new album, Blank Page Mosaic, a 19-track journey that marks a heartfelt return to her singer-songwriter roots. This alternative masterpiece weaves intricate stories and introspective musings, inviting listeners into her world.

Blank Page Mosaic is a deeply personal exploration of human connection and inner reflection, guided by the evocative interplay of Maartje Teussink's semi-acoustic guitar and soulful vocals. The album's tracks range from lyrical storytelling to instrumental meditations, each a piece of a larger mosaic that captures the essence of returning to a pure, minimal state of mind. With additional layers of electric guitar, synthesiser, e-drums, percussion, piano, Spanish guitar, and backing vocals, Maartje Teussink crafts a sound that is both intimate and expansive, balancing the grounded simplicity of songwriting with her seasoned expertise as an arranger.

A veteran of theatre, sound design, film, and library music, Maartje Teussink brings her multifaceted talents to Blank Page Mosaic, creating a sonic landscape that feels both timeless and innovative. The album's instrumental tracks strip back to the core, offering moments of quiet contemplation that complement the lyrical depth of her English-language songs. This is music that speaks to the heart, a call to reconnect with the fundamental emotions that define us.

Maartje Teussink's illustrious career spans continents and disciplines. Hailing from the Netherlands, she honed her craft at the Janáček Music Academy in Brno, Czech Republic, studying percussion and classical singing, before continuing her education at the Academy for Music and Theatre in Amsterdam. A self-taught multi-instrumentalist, she has mastered an array of instruments, guitars, drums, bass, piano, synthesiser, clarinet, bouzouki, and double bass, blending alternative pop with classical influences. Her work as a composer and performer has graced national and international theatre and contemporary dance productions, as well as film scores and multimedia installations.

In 2018, her album Organic Cities was distributed by Bertus Distribution, showcasing her ability to merge lyrical storytelling with rich, atmospheric soundscapes. A recipient of the prestigious Grote Prijs van Nederland award in 2000 and 2001 for her singer-songwriter compositions, Maartje Teussink continues to push boundaries as an independent creator under her label, Thoughtrecords. Based in Rotterdam, she balances her music career with studies in Master Music Therapy, further deepening her connection to the transformative power of sound.

You can pre-order the vinyl using the following link here!

Support Maartje Teussink on Social Media

Instagram | Twitter | Facebook

Listen to more of Maartje Teussink
Spotify | Apple Music | Youtube